The July 2014 News Update for Our Redeemer Lutheran Church

Sundays in July
Pastor Curtis will be here almost all of July. However, he will only be conducting the services at ORLC on July 13 and 27. The reasons are:

On July 6, he will be leading the service in Oliver. There will be a Service of the Word at OLRC.

On July 20, he will be attending an educational conference for Continuing Education (away July 15 - 21). Again, there will be a Service of the Word. Thanks to all the worship leaders and sermon readers who have been jumping in to make the worship a meaningful experience here at OLRC!

At this writing there are no results, but it does appear that the perpetrator(s) was/were wearing gloves.

Although the burglar(s) left quite a mess, and one piece of electronic equipment seems to have been taken, the policy of not leaving cash or the spare outside keys on premises paid off. The only losses seem to be the damage to various door handles and cabinet locks, and the destruction of a small safe that does not get used anyway. The burglar(s) also ate up some cookies that were kept in the kitchen cupboards.

The police believe that entry was gained through a door that was not properly closed. When you leave the building, please be sure that all doors are locked and completely latched. Some of the doors stick at different times of the year due to moisture, heat, or accumulated sand and grit on the threshold.

Mark Your Calendars for August 10!
On that day, Randy Duhn is sponsoring a lunch at Linden Gardens for the whole congregation! Everyone is invited (at no cost to you). As we get closer to the date, there will be a sign-up sheet so that we can coordinate rides and so that they will know how many to serve.

Thank you in advance, Randy, for your generosity!

ORLC Break-In
Our church was broken into sometime between 2:30 p.m. on Monday, June 30, and 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, July 2. The crime scene was still pristine on Wednesday morning so the police were able to check for fingerprints.
